

Wage levels data sheet

Last updated: November 2024

Produced by: Risk, Performance & Procurement

Contact: performance@rushmoor.gov.uk

Summary - Measures from 2024 indicate that wage levels have risen for those who live in Rushmoor and those who work in Rushmoor. Those who work in Rushmoor earn more than those who live in Rushmoor.

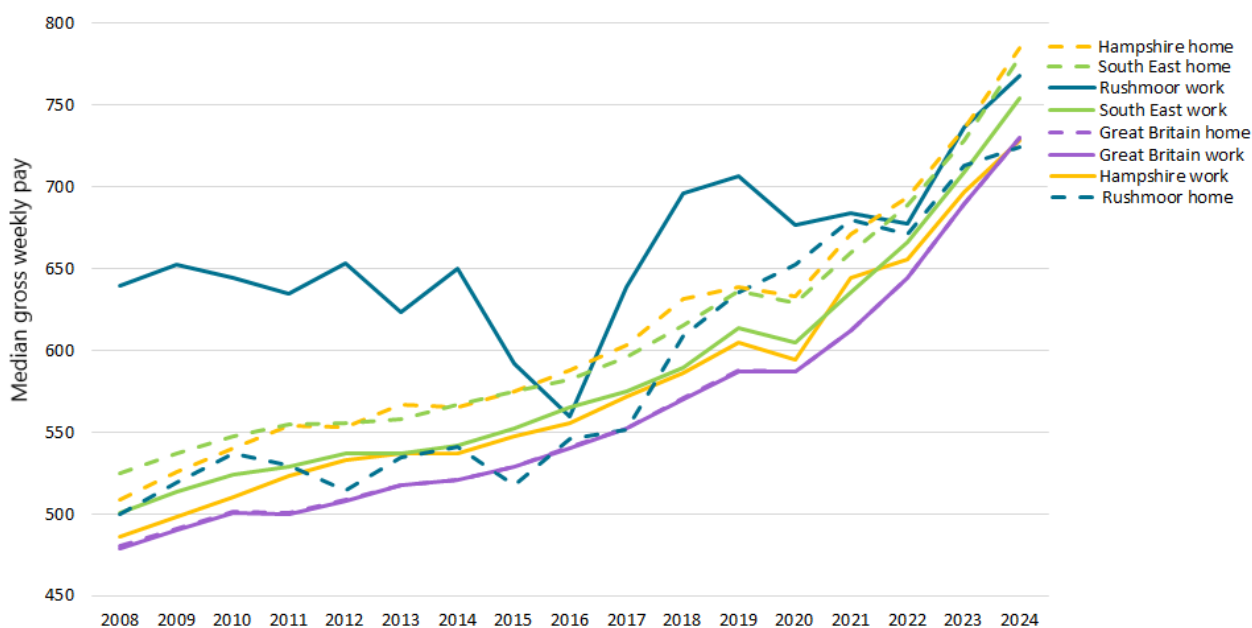

Wage levels

The Annual Survey of Hours and Earnings (ASHE) is based on a 1% sample of employee jobs taken from HM Revenue and Customs PAYE records. In 2024, Rushmoor residents on average earned £724 a week (full time median gross weekly pay). This was £61 less than the average for residents in Hampshire, £55 less than the average for the South East and £6 less than the average for Great Britain residents. The average weekly wage if you worked in Rushmoor was £768, meaning a difference of £44.

Time Series

The following chart shows the median weekly wages for those who work in and live in Rushmoor, Hampshire, the South East and Great Britain, since 2008.

Average weekly earnings for those who live in and work in Rushmoor, Hampshire, the South East and Great Britain

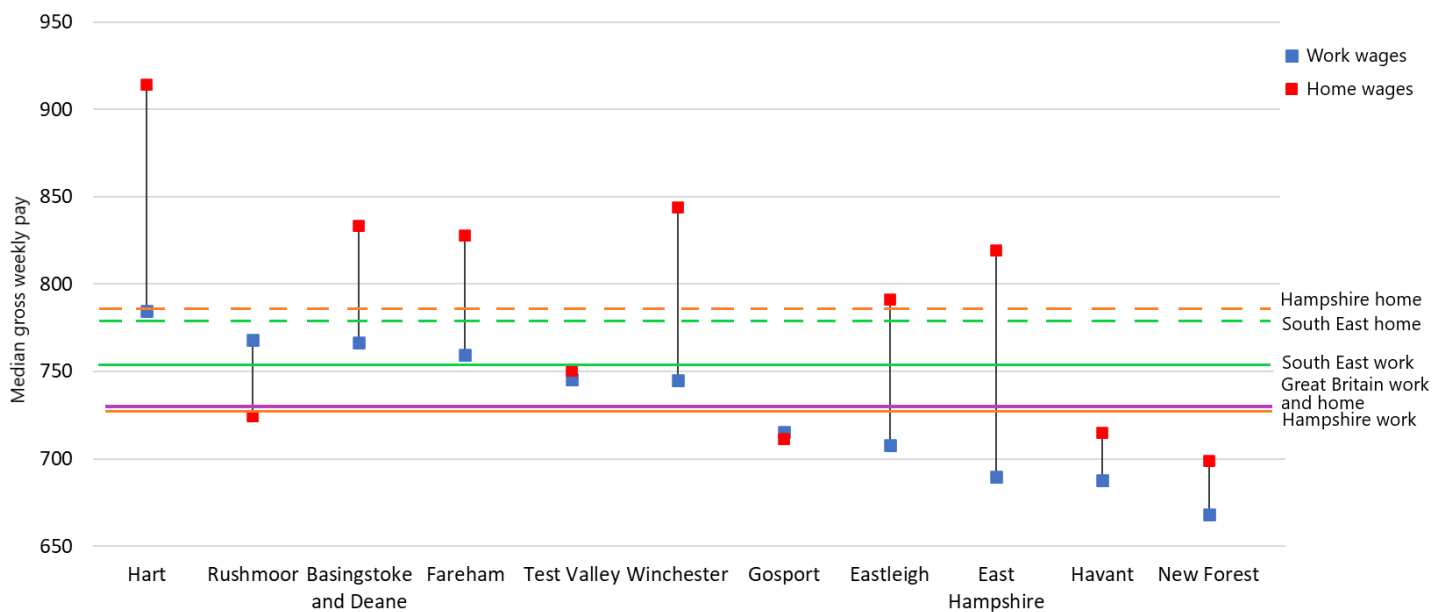

(Source: Office for National Statistics NOMIS Labour Market Profile - Nomis - Official Census and Labour Market Statistics)

The data indicates that wage levels dropped for those who live in Rushmoor and those who work in Rushmoor for 2022 but have risen from 2023. The data also shows an average higher wage for those who work in Rushmoor, in comparison to those who work in Hampshire, the South East and Great Britain.

Comparisons

In comparisons to the other districts in Hampshire, Rushmoor has the second highest average work wage and the eighth highest average home wage. Rushmoor and Gosport are the only districts in Hampshire where work wages are higher than home wages.

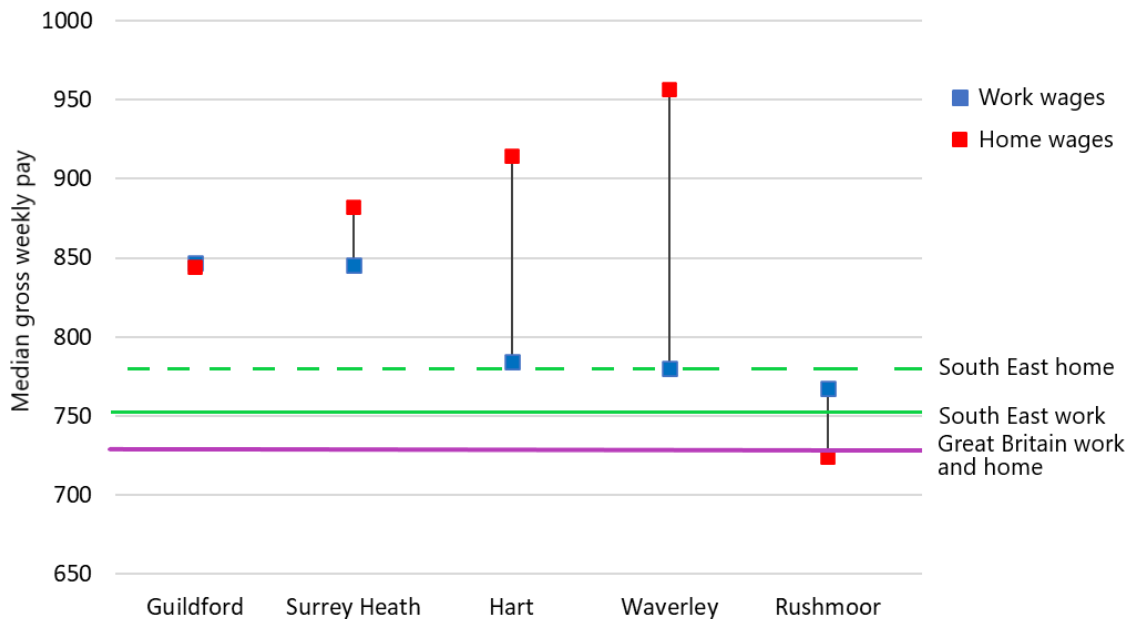

Average weekly earnings for those who live in and work in Hampshire districts (in order of highest work wages to lowest work wages) in 2024

(Source: Office for National Statistics NOMIS Labour Market Profile - Nomis - Official Census and Labour Market Statistics)

The following graph shows weekly wages for Rushmoor compared to Rushmoor’s surrounding local authorities. Rushmoor has the lowest average home wage and the lowest work wage.

Average weekly earnings for those who live in and work in Rushmoor compared to surrounding local authorities (in order of highest work wages to lowest work wages) in 2024

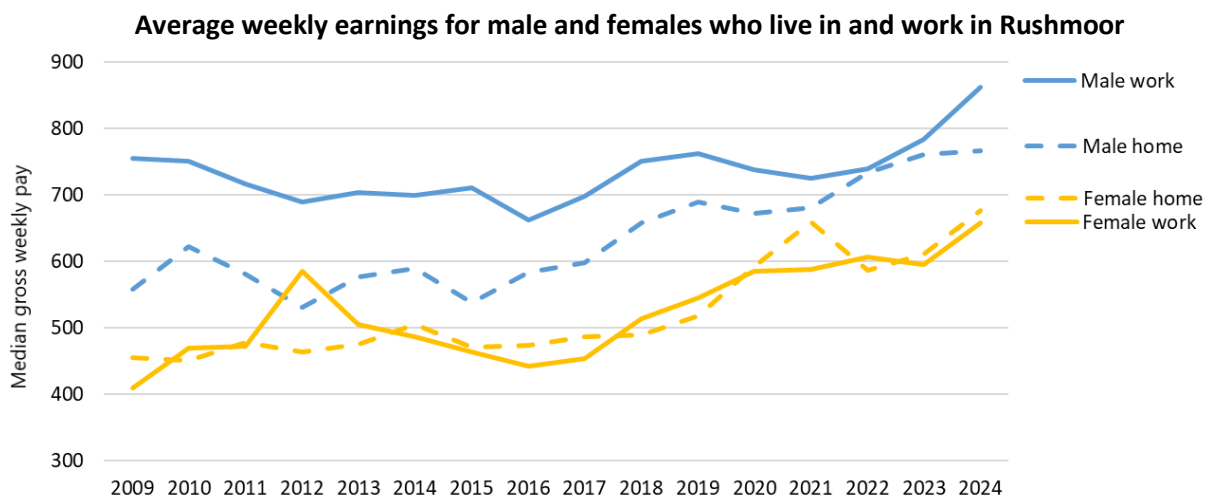

(Source: Office for National Statistics NOMIS Labour Market Profile - Nomis - Official Census and Labour Market Statistics)

In 2024 Guildford had the 6th highest residents’ wages in the South East, Surrey Heath the 7th, Hart the 18th and Waverley the 20th highest. Rushmoor had the 21st highest residents’ wages in the South East.

Males and females

Males who work in Rushmoor and males who live in Rushmoor, on average earn more than females who work in Rushmoor and females who live in Rushmoor. There is a larger gap in income for males that live in Rushmoor and male who work in Rushmoor (£96), compared to the gap for females (£18).

(Source: Office for National Statistics NOMIS Labour Market Profile - Nomis - Official Census and Labour Market Statistics)